IEEE SP Cup 2024 - Student Guidance Program

IEEE Signal Processing Cup at IEEE ICASSP 2024

ROBOVOX: Far-Field Speaker Recognition by a Mobile Robot

The Signal Processing Cup (SP Cup) competition is held annually and encourages teams of students to work together to solve real-world problems using signal processing methods and techniques. Each year, three final teams are chosen to present their work during ICASSP to compete for the US $5,000 grand prize!

- Fill out this form if you hope to participate in SP Cup 2024 representing University of Moratuwa.
- The Signal Processing Society of UoM will be helping out the teams that are expecting to participate at SP Cup 2024 by finding them mentors.

Deadline: 11.59 PM, 4th January 2024

Team Information

Team Composition

1. Each team MUST be composed of:

- One faculty member (the Supervisor)
- At least 3 but no more than 10 undergraduates
- Optionally - At most one graduate student (the Tutor).

2. At least three of the undergraduate team members must be SPS student members at time of team registration.

3. Further definitions of each team position are as follows:

- Faculty (Supervisor): A faculty member or someone with a PhD degree employed by the university. Postdocs and research associates are not considered as faculty members.
- Graduate Student (Tutor): A graduate student is a student having earned at least a 4-year University degree at the time of submission. Please note: Tutors are not eligible to receive travel grants or prize money.
- Undergraduate: An undergraduate student is a student without a 4-year degree.

4. Team members cannot be changed after the team registration deadline.

5. At least one undergraduate team member must be in attendance (in-person) of the final round of the competition held at the respective conference (ICASSP or ICIP) to present the team's work.

6. Students receiving the travel grant and prize payments MUST be active SPS members at time of team formation. Signal Processing Society membership can be added here.

7. The Signal Processing Society - UoM will help you find graduate student mentor or faculty mentor.
